

Powwow Library

An agreement for acceptable use

Club members have the right to use the library only if they adhere to the following rules for acceptable use.

1. General rules and behavior

The library is available for use to all Powwow club members. Silence and decent behavior are compulsory. One must not disturb the comfort of the other visitors of the library.

2. Borrowing books

There are books which are available only for reading on the territory of the library, and there are other books, which are also available for borrowing. The rare and valuable copies are to be used only on the premises of the library's reading room, meaning that they cannot be borrowed outside of the library. Library books, which are available for borrowing, may be taken for a period of 30 (thirty) days. The maximum number of books that can be borrowed simultaneously is 5 (five). If a book is overdue, a daily penalty fine of 0.50 leva is charged for every day beyond the due date until the book is returned, or the market price of the book is reached.

If a club member cannot return a borrowed book on time, he/she needs to send a written notification prior to the due date. In the notification, there should be a pointed date when the book is to be returned, and the date should not exceed 5 (five) working days after the due deadline. Penalty fee is not to be charged in such cases.

3. Using books

In case a borrowed book is damaged or lost, the reader is obliged to provide an identical copy, or to pay a compensation that equals the market price of the lost/damaged books. Underlining, folding, and other actions that damage the integrity and appearance of the books are strictly forbidden.

By signing this agreement, I declare that I have read, understood, and I agree with the listed rules for using the Powwow library.
